

Artwork by Muriel Miller

Muriel Miller, of Hampton, Connecticut, is a graduate of the University of Connecticut and has a Masters in Art from Central Connecticut State University. She has received numerous awards in all areas of artwork, and has had her work exhibited in galleries, libraries and businesses throughout the state. She currently lectures on Fine Art at Eastern Connecticut State University.

Miller's paintings of woods and nature scenes are recordings of her impressions of color, light and shadow, often with the color exaggerated to express the emotions aroused by the beauty. The acrylic paintings, painted on site, are done on paper without prior sketching to allow for freer expression. Miller has a particular fondness for trees, and her work captures the unique characteristics of each.

NEW PAINTINGS BY MURIEL MILLER

March 31 - April 24, 2004 – Reception: Saturday, April 3, 2004, 5-7 PM

ARTWORKS GALLERY, INC., 233 Pearl Street, Hartford, Connecticut 06103
(p)860.247.3522 • www.artworksgallery.org • ARTWORKS.Gallery@snet.net

The paintings featured are large-scale acrylic landscape paintings that combine an impressionistic rendering of light and atmosphere with a vividly expressionistic and psychological use of color.

Says the artist, "I try to push beyond what I see to what I feel in expressing my reaction to a place." Miller's choice of subjects further reflects a meeting

I try to push beyond what I see to what I feel...

of the familiar and the strange, as paintings depicting familiar northeastern Connecticut landscapes alternate with vivid realizations of natural environments from travels in Ireland, England, Australia and most recently the National Parks of the West. Miller says, "I am visually stimulated by landscapes that I have never seen before and I try to capture the uniqueness and spirit of a place." In each case, a studied attention to detail is offset by Miller's incredibly light touch and a concern with spontaneity that comes from painting plein air.

Dennis Waring, Ethnomusicologist and official Connecticut State troubadour 2003-2004 will perform at Miller's opening reception. Waring is well known for his instrument workshops, school performances, educator workshops and hand building of instruments. His latest creation is a harp made from paper. He is a former instructor of music at Eastern and Central Connecticut State University.
